Here's ANOTHER reason to join...

If you are a liquor retailer, you already know the problems your business faces. The hard part is solving the issues, or at least controlling the expense of the solutions.

The MassPack forum puts you in immediate touch with experts, your fellow merchants. You can meet with them at any time of the night or day, evenings, weekends, or holidays. You can meet with them in a private situation, where they and you can be confident that no one except your fellow merchants are listening.

Among the Topics being discussed right now in our forums are:

- Industry Events - trade shows inside and outside of MassPack
- Retailer Concerns

- Retailer Alerts
- General Questions
- Beer
- Wine
- Spirits
- Lottery

- Retailer Technology
- The Channel
- Massachusetts Issues
- Member Resources

- Wine Suppliers
- Beer Suppliers
- Spirits Suppliers

- Educational Seminars
- National Issues

So we say to you again, "Strength in Unity." Join MassPack today, see what you've been missing. Please note that the forums you can see from the resources menu are only those visible to the public. The really good stuff is visible only to our members.
